Rules and Regulations

1.1 Pheasant Run memberships provide a member with the right to use the club's facilities available to that category of membership upon payment of applicable fees, pursuant to and in accordance with the membership plan, by-laws, rules and regulations established for the club. It does not provide a member with any ownership or equitable interest in the club or the facility or other assets owned by the club.

1.2 Pheasant Run shall use all reasonable efforts to have the club's golf course available to playing members during the golfing season. The closure of all or any portion of the club for repair, maintenance, improvement, corporate events or expansion and the use of all or any portion of the club for the purpose of private functions, corporate events, or otherwise shall be permitted at the sole discretion of the club.

1.3 Pheasant Run shall have the right, in its absolute discretion, to accept or reject any application for membership. Pheasant Run shall not be required to provide reasons for its decision to accept or reject an application for membership. Pheasant Run may establish such order of priorities for consideration and acceptance of applications as it determines to be appropriate.

1.4 Pheasant Run shall not be responsible for any lost, stolen or damaged items associated with club cleaning.

1.5 All members will be required to fill out a general liability waiver and cart waiver prior to the 2025 golf season.

Code of Conduct

The Code of Conduct has been developed to ensure a safe, friendly and respectful place for all members, guests and staff. As a member, you will be held to the highest standard and are expected to be an example to other guests and patrons of Pheasant Run Golf Club.

The Code of Conduct differs from rules in that it addresses acceptable/unacceptable behavior as well as expectations of members and Red Hat Club members.

All Members and Red Hat Club Members Club are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that:

- Creates an environment and culture that reflects honesty, integrity and good sportsmanship.
- Is free of discrimination or any form of harassing behaviour including sexual harassment toward other members, guests, and staff.
- Acknowledges Pheasant Run Golf Club as a family friendly environment and, therefore, refrains from using obscenities and loud boisterous behaviour inappropriate for children and respectable taste.

All members and Red Hat Club members acknowledge and agree:

- Hitting a golf ball in the direction of any other member, guest or staff is completely unacceptable and will result in the most severe of disciplinary action.
- To observe proper etiquette on and off the course. Proper etiquette includes, but is not limited to:
  - Repairing all pitch marks on the greens
  - Replacing all divots
  - Refrain from any intentional abuse of the golf course or facilities.
  - Meet the minimum pace of play requirement at all times.
  - Follow all directions given by the starter and on-course staff.
  - Behave in a way that does not disrupt the enjoyment of other members and patrons.
- That the Club Management is responsible for instructing the staff in the performance of their duties and that members and guests have no authority to direct staff.
- To adhere to all Pheasant Run Golf Club rules and policies, including the club Alcohol policy.
- That all members and Red Hat members must check-in and register with the pro shop prior to play.
- To follow all safe operation and on-course use of power cart directives, including adherence to directives outlining areas where usage is prohibited.

Any member or Red Hat member that violates the above code of conduct may face disciplinary action at the sole discretion of the General Manager, up to and including the suspension and or loss of membership privileges.
